GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following papers :—

From F. D'A. O. WOLFE-MURRAY, Esq., Acting Collector of Vizagapatam, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 15th January 1896, Dis. No. 36.

Referring to G.O., No. 80, Public, dated 2nd February 1892, I have the honour to report that no registered inland emigration has taken place from this district during the year 1895.

From C. J. WEIR, Esq., I.C.S., Collector and Superintendent of Emigration, Ganjam, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Camp, Sarangodo, 13th February 1896, Dis. No. 187—Eng.

With reference to G.O., No. 390, Public, dated 10th June 1892, I have the honour to submit, for the information of Government, my report on the working of the Assam Labour and Emigration Act I of 1882 in the district during the year 1895, together with the connected statements.

2. Recruitment by Contractors and Recruiters.—The number of contractors who held licenses under section 12 of the Act during the year under report was three, as against two in the previous year. Of these, one—Mr. R. Hill—was licensed in April last and carried on the work of recruiting labourers for the labour districts throughout the year; another—Babu Prasanna Kumara Chakravarthi—renewed his license of the previous year and carried on his work for more than half the year and then discontinued operations; and the third—M.R.Ry. Narayana Row—took out a license in November last and worked till the end of the year under report. One sub-contractor—Mr. S. E. Culpeper—was licensed to work under Mr. R. Hill. With the exception of Prasanna Kumara Chakravarthi, all the contractors throughout the year under report carried on their recruiting operations in accordance with the requirements of the Act and rules. The number of recruiters who were licensed under section 23 of the Act on behalf of the three licensed contractors rose from thirteen in the previous year to seventeen. Three hundred and twenty-nine persons were recruited under this system in the year under report as against ninety-two in the previous year. This year, as in the previous year, no recruiter's license was cancelled.

3. Depôt Accommodation.—A copy of the Medical Inspector's report, regarding the sanitary arrangements made by the contractors in the depôts established by them at Gopalpur under section 19 of the Act, is herewith forwarded. The depôt arrangements of Contractor Prasanna Kumara Chakravarthi continued to be unsatisfactory, till he discontinued his work. He did not live on his depôt premises, nor did he appoint a suitable person to live there, as required by Rule 18 of the Emigration rules, in spite of repeated orders from this office.

4. Recruitment by local Agents and Garden Sardars.—There was a reduction during the year under report in the number of local agents licensed under section 59 of the Act, as only one—B. Suryanarayana—was licensed as against four in the previous year. Under section 62 of the Act, this local agent took out also a special license to recruit labourers without the intervention of garden sardars. Besides this man, another local agent—Babu Manmath Nath Bosu—also continued his recruiting operations till the end of November last, as the licenses he had taken under sections 59 and 62 of the Act remained in force till 26th November 1895. The number of garden sardars who received certificates under section 52 of the Act, authorising the recruitment of labourers during the year under report, was 113. The two local agents—B. Suryanarayana and Babu Manmath Nath Bosu—reported that the total numbers of garden sardars who arrived during 1894 were 30 and 76 respectively. These figures were therefore adopted in my annual report to Government for 1894. They now state that the figures reported by them last year are incorrect and that the figures 32 and 65, respectively, are the correct ones. If the figures now reported by them be accepted, the figure 161—the total number of garden sardars reported in 1894—should be altered to 152. The emigrants collected by garden sardars were 523, as against 365 in the previous year. Two depôts were maintained by two local agents at Gopalpur with suitable accommodation in compliance with the requirements of section 57 of the Act. The emigrants were properly fed, clothed and lodged. No certificate of a garden sardar was cancelled during 1895.

5. Of the 329 persons recruited during the year 1895 by contractors and recruiters, 318 were the emigrants registered on behalf of the contractors; of these, 237 were labourers and 81 dependants, against 92 (69 being labourers and 23 dependants) in the previous year.

The total number of Sardari emigrants registered during 1895 was 523, of whom 389 were labourers and 134 dependants, as against 365 (253 labourers and 112 dependants) in 1894.

The aggregate number of emigrants to Assam registered during the year under report was 841 (626 labourers and 215 dependants), as against 457 emigrants (322 labourers and 135 dependants) in 1894. There was thus a total increase in 1895 of 384 emigrants (304 labourers and 80 dependants).

6. Free Emigration.—The Superintendent of Emigration, Gopalpur, reports that there was no emigration of free labourers as authorised by section 7 of the Act.

7. Transport of Emigrants.—All the coolies recruited in the different parts of the district, both by the recruiters and sardars, were taken directly to Gopalpur for registration by the Port Officer, Gopalpur, who is the registrar of the whole district, and were accommodated there in the depôts. After the medical examination and the registration, 812 emigrants were forwarded to Calcutta against 457 in the previous year. All, except 62 who proceeded in May last by land, were despatched by sea, accompanied by the person who recruited them or by a competent person deputed by him with the approval of the registrar. Emigration by land has of late been put a stop to on receipt of G.O., No. 1018, Public, dated 16th December 1895, and all the recruiting agency has been informed of the prohibition of the land route to emigrants proceeding from this district to Calcutta until such time as the extension of the East Coast Railway shall have connected it with the railway systems into Calcutta. A notification has also been published in the Ganjam District Gazette for February 1896 in triglott.

8. Receipts.—The receipts during the year under report amounted to Rs. 1,146, as against Rs. 652 in 1894, and consist of the following items:—

- (1) Rupees 626, levied as fees for registration under sections 35 and 68 of the Act; and
- (2) Rupees 520, paid as license fees by three contractors, one sub-contractor and seventeen recruiters.

9. Charges.—The charges during the year amounted to Rs. 667-15-0, as against Rs. 1,031-4-8 in the previous year. This amount consists of the fees paid to the two temporary clerks on Rs. 15 each—one in the Huzur and another in the Port Office, Gopalpur—and the allowance of Rs. 30 a month to the Port Officer, Gopalpur.

10. Financial Results.—The financial results of the year under report were satisfactory compared with those of the previous year. In 1894 the charges exceeded the receipts, while in the year under report the receipts exceeded the charges by Rs. 478. The increase was probably due to the completion in most of the districts of the East Coast Railway and to the increased demand for labour in the tea districts owing to the extension of plantations. 1895 was again a very favourable season in this district. Should an adverse season occur, it is probable that there would be an immense increase in the emigration.

11. General Remarks.—The depôts were regularly visited when coolies were accommodated in them, and there were no complaints regarding clothing, diet, &c., The majority of emigrants registered were recruited under the Sardari system and were Uriyas. The terms and conditions of the labour-contracts were carefully explained to the emigrants and their express consent was obtained by the registering officer before registering them as labourers. No cases of kidnapping were reported, and no fraud, coercion or misrepresentation was used in the recruiting.

ENCLOSURES.

ANNUAL Report of the Medical Inspector of Emigrants on the sanitary arrangements in the contractors' depôts at Gopalpur for the year 1895.

There were two contractors who recruited coolies for Assam during the year, one being Mr. Ross (on behalf of Mr. Hill) and the other Babu P. K. Chakravarthi.

No coolies were recruited by the former prior to April 1895; the remark applies to this year, as the depôt is of long standing.

During the year, 318 emigrants were registered in the office of the Superintendent of Emigration, Gopalpur, and found accommodation in the above-mentioned depôts. For a few days at a time, however, in many instances, during the period they were under medical inspection.

Sleeping Sheds.—These were in order till the end of the year, when the Bengalee's depôt required repairs (repaired subsequently).

Cooking Sheds.—These were in fair order.

Water-supply.—In Mr. Hill's depôt a well, with a parapet-wall and platform around it, provided water of good quality.

The well resorted to by Babu P. K. Chakravarthi's coolies required a parapet-wall and platform, the wall being in a dilapidated state and allowing slushy water surrounding it to gravitate into the well. The contractor was instructed to repair it in March, but failed to do so. He resigned or was re-called to Calcutta in August or September. The well was repaired subsequently by his successor. However, the coolies recruited by the Bengalee formed such a small proportion and stayed such a limited time in the depôt, that no appreciable difference in their health was apparent as a result of the defects in connection with his depôt.

Latrines.—These were demolished by the bad weather experienced in June. They were replaced after a time. Coolies displayed unwillingness to resort to latrines.

Hospitals.—Three patients were accommodated in hospital in the Bengalee's depôt and two in the other. The hospital of the former was in a state of disrepair for a considerable portion of the period: it was, however, not needed during the period. No contagious diseases were suffered from.

General Remarks.—Contractor P. K. Chakravarthi contrived to give as much trouble as possible till September when he was removed or he resigned. He recruited a very small number of coolies and he worked in connection with a "local agent" whose depôt is some yards away from his—in too close proximity probably, as the operations of these district agencies have, as the Act lays down, to be conducted independently of one another. He provided no visitors' book for a long period, had no proper agent here during his usual absence in Berhampur, and gave trouble in other respects.

ORDER—No. 388, Public, dated 18th March 1896.

The Superintendent of Emigration, Ganjám, submits his report on inland emigration from the district under Act I of 1882 (Assam Labour and Emigration) during 1895.

2. The results of the past three years are compared below :—

Year.	Number of contractors' licenses issued.	Number of recruiters' licenses issued.	Number of local agents licensed.	Garden sardars.	Number of contractor emigrants registered.	Number of sardari emigrants registered.	Total number of emigrants registered.	Receipts in rupees.	Charges in rupees.

1893	2	14	2	92	175	593	768	899	2,167

* Three hundred and twenty-nine persons were recruited, but only 318 registered on behalf of the contractors.

† One license was not issued until after the close of the year : vide paragraph 2 of the Superintendent's report for 1894.

‡ Vide paragraph 4 of the report under review.

3. Persistent disregard, such as that referred to in paragraph 3 of the report, of the rules for the management of the depôts, should be visited with prompt cancellation of the recruiting agent's license.

4. The more favourable financial results of the year under review as compared with those for 1894 are attributed to the progress of the East Coast Railway and to the increased demand for labour in the districts owing to the extension of plantations. The registration fees were nearly double those received in the previous year.

5. In paragraph 7 of his report for 1894, the Superintendent stated that 67 emigrants had proceeded by land to Calcutta in 1893, and that, as no report of their arrival had been received, rules 34 and 40 had been apparently violated. On receipt of the further particulars which were called for from the Superintendent in G.O., No. 337, Public, dated 3rd May 1895, His Excellency the Governor in Council directed that, for sanitary reasons and to prevent illicit emigration, the land route should be closed to emigrants proceeding from Ganjám to Calcutta until such time as the extension of the East Coast Railway should have connected it with the railway systems running into Calcutta (vide G.O., No. 1018, Public, dated 16th December 1895).

6. With regard to the Medical Inspector's remark as to the unwillingness of the coolies to resort to the latrines, the attention of the District Magistrate will be called to the matter in view of his taking steps to enforce the law against nuisances.

7. It is satisfactory to note that no complaints of kidnapping or of fraud practised on intending emigrants were received by the authorities.

No cases of kidnapping were reported; and no fraud, coercion or misrepresentation was used in the recruiting.
