ORDER—No. 395, Public, dated 19th March 1896.

The foregoing statements show the results of the working of the European Vagrancy Act IX of 1874 in this Presidency during the year 1895.

2. There were four vagrants left on the rolls of the Government Workhouse at the commencement of, and sixteen admissions during, the year under review, making a total of twenty. Of these, four were discharged on obtaining employment, six were released under section 16, one was sent to England as a distressed seaman by the Port authorities, three absconded, two were transferred to the Bombay Workhouse and one died in the General Hospital. There were thus three vagrants remaining on the rolls at the close of the year as against four in the preceding year.

3. Six of the vagrants admitted during the year were European British subjects, two "other Europeans," two "other British subjects" and six Americans, the corresponding numbers for 1894 being fifteen, four, five and none, respectively.

The previous occupation of the inmates is compared below:—

	1893.	1894.	1895.
Sailors	9	4	6
Soldiers	..	2	1
Shopkeepers and traders	..	1	..
Clerks	1	3	..
Railway employés	11	11	5
Artizans and labourers	1	2	1
Other occupations	5	1	3
Total	27	24	16

4. The daily average population of the workhouse was 2 [illegible] as against 3 in 1894. The longest period of confinement rose from three months and twenty-six days to seven months and fourteen days, but three months and four days of the latter were spent in the General Hospital. The total expenditure incurred during the year was Rs. 1,906-9-0, the figures for 1893 and 1894 being Rs. 1,960-13-11 and Rupees 1,980-14-10, respectively.

The average cost of each inmate shows a continued increase for the past three years—

	Rs.	A.	P.
1893	51	4	0
1894	65	12	5
1895	81	4	1

This is principally accounted for by the fact that the number of inmates decreased, whereas the principal item of expenditure, viz., Establishment, remained almost stationary.
