was trivial in itself, it had become one of some difficulty owing to the irregularities which had been adopted in submitting the matter to the Queen. He expressed the opinion that, when it is necessary to submit any such matter to Her Majesty, the papers should come through the Secretary of State. Otherwise, if the formalities were relaxed, there would be a risk that applications might be multiplied. He also pointed out that in the present case there was the further difficulty that the form of the answer to be returned, suggested by a Mahomedan Charity. To this Her Majesty gave Her approval.

Sir Arthur Bigge submitted the reply to be sent to Major Lawley to the Secretary of State, expressing doubts as to the necessity for obtaining Her Majesty's sanction for a gift of the kind, and questioning the correctness of the procedure followed.

Lord George Hamilton replied that there was no necessity for obtaining Her Majesty's formal consent to the acceptance of the gifts, and that, though the matter was

The Maharaja of Vizianagram's gifts to Institutions at Madras.

SECRETARY OF STATE

RECEIVED
In January 1895 Lord Wenlock wrote to Sir Fleetwood Edwards stating that in response to efforts which had been made on behalf of the Dufferin Fund the Maharaja of Vizianagram had sent the sum of Rs. 10,000 in aid of the Victoria Caste and Gocha Hospital at Madras. The Maharaja was specially anxious that his gift should be accepted in commemoration of the birth of the son of H.R.H. the Duke of York

York, and Lord Wenlock pointed out that if Her Majesty could in some way communicate Her satisfaction at hearing of the gift it would be immensely pleasing to the donor and would materially assist in the efforts which were being made.

On the 15th February 1895, Sir Fleetwood Edwards replied expressing Her Majesty's satisfaction and appreciation of the Maharaja's generosity; and further expressed her gratification at the thought which prompted the Maharaja to associate his gift with the event alluded to to.

In January 1896 Major Lawley wrote to Sir Arthur Bigge to say that the Maharaja had made a second donation to the Hospital of Rs. 25,000, and had in addition given Rs. 10,000 to a struggling Mahomedan Institution (Anjuman I Mafed I Ahli Islam) in commemoration of the birth of the Duke of York's second son. Major Lawley requested, on behalf of Lord Wenlock, that Her Majesty might sanction the gift and allude to the large-minded generosity shown in a Hindu noble contributing to the funds
