FORT ST. GEORGE

March 3^d

Dear Bliss.

I have now got to all papers ready and send them on to you. I think that they will be found all right.

File I is the Attestation regarding L. his departure.

File II contains the Attestation of you having assumed the Office of Governor and the various letters which have to issue thereupon.

File II is in form of appointments and at Staff.

Such appointments were made when Mr. Burdwood took charge as Gov for about 36 hours - (see copy of Bombay Gazette worked with while File I)

File IV ^{with} The appointments of a temporary Member of Council with the letters in which have to be written thereon)

File V is the ratification of the arrival of Sir A. Hamilton.

File VI is the notification by Gazette Extraordinary of Sir A. H. having taken charge and the proclamation which will have to be reprinted.

File VII is the form of appointment Staff to his place in which of his orders are known.

File VIII contains the report regarding the S & S's letter - are a repetition of the letter which will have to go out when Govt. takes charge as its Secretary.

As regards reception here and at the Station - we have never kept any detailed account of what was done
- the only one is that which I wrote myself when Lt. Governor came.
I believe that when Lt. Commissioner came there was no one here with (at the Govt. Office) excepting the members of Council and Secretaries. Mr. Burd who commenced the period of his term told me that this was his impression also.

But when Mr. Burd came to see me who told me that when the Council came there only half the present size full and it gave us a lot of bother. There were a few as I can recollect - the Chief Justice

~~100~~ 100th. Berhote I member of the Leg Council and a copy of two. Kucatsgheny was there and gave a lot of trouble as he considered some one better suited than he was. Hymnagran came for minutes of office, presents were sent to accompany Kucatsgheny.
If you think that this letter or thing should be repeated please let me know as we must arrange the room and get card printed.
I have asked the R. Dept. what arrangements are being made as regards Governor Salom for 6th Nov.

Yours very sincerely

Herbert Hill

I have looked up in the paper what occurred when L. A. Commence came; he was

March 4, 1896

My dear Sir
With refer to your offer-today, we have returned for your reference

File I

I have reconsidered the words "his excellency" which seem to me right.
I think we ought to add at least "Full dress. Gentlemen not entitled to wear uniform will wear morning dress" or whatever is the usual thing to be observed on occasions - This must be a present - vide notice of Viceroy's departure.

File II

This speaks of Lord W's resignation - Is it intended that he shall receive any sagnation? By 4.79 of 304 Willing Cap 85, his more departure shall as the resignation & avoidance of office. Unless he intends formally to resign, I think the form of the notice or circumvent with regard alteration.

I think the letters to the Lords of Bombay & Madras & me about should be issued all the others in this file seem right except the resignation portion.

File III

Bridgwood apparently had the retiring Lord's staff at hand to appoint I shall not have. I don't therefore propose to appoint anyone, unless it can be shown that some one will sustain injury by not doing so - I don't propose to appoint any temporary Member of Council for the day or half or two days which will elapse between Lord Wenlock's departure & Sir A. Harlock's arrival.

File IV

I think this requires attention as shown.

File V

Orders should also be added as to dress, vide note on file I.

Now that the army is no longer under us, is it right that the proclamations sh^d. be read to the troops as formerly? I don't know. I think you had better write to India on it.

File VI

This might as well be filled in.

File VII

As regards the ceremonial in the Court office, I think it is best to invite the Chief officers of Govt. & others, as mentioned by you, together with the ladies of their families.
Ladies like Lady Collins, Miss Bell, Mrs.
John & others will naturally wish to pay Sir A. & Lady Harlock the compliments of meeting them on arrival, but can hardly be expected to mingle with the mob of coolies carrying baggage &c. &c. at the Central Station.

Every thing else seems all right.

Yours very sincerely
H. W. Mills

I have altered the draft on this point & that of dress

2010

The draft has been corrected.
H.W.M.

File I The words "His Excellency" were omitted after personal consultation between the C.S. & Lt. Genl.
Mansfield Clarke as they were a purely personal distinction - &c. it would be correct to say "H.E.
Lt. Genl. Mansfield Clarke" but not "H.E. the Lt. Genl." as the title does not go with the office.

Full dress was ordered for the Viceroy's departure but when Lord Wenlock arrived no instructions were given by post.
The mil. dept did the needful.

File II It is submitted that under 3 & 4 William IV Cap 83 & 99 the resignation of a Governor can be effected only by departure from the country with intent to return to Europe or a declaration in writing in the event of the resignation taking effect while he is still in the country.
The one act is as much an avoidance of office as the other & hence it is proposed to adopt the usual form. Lord Carnarvon's was a case of the other sort. That is to say

was a land resignation whereas Lord Wenlock's is a sea resignation.

It is submitted that Lord Wenlock's tenure has not expired by effluxion of time & that the simple form "in consequence of the resignation of" is more convenient, less cumbersome & more readily understood by the public than to say "the office of Governor having fallen vacant in consequence of the departure by sea of the Right Honourable Beilby, Baron Wenlock with intent to return to Europe &c."

The salutes will be arranged for separately in direct communication with the General Officer Commanding the district in accordance with existing practice. The letters to Bombay &c. in file II will not be issued if the H.M. so directs, but the procedure was adopted by the Govt of Bombay in the case of the Honble Mr. Birdwood.

File III Any member of Lord Wenlock's staff who is to be taken on to Sir Arthur Havelock's staff would be injuriously affected if

Would the H.M. prefer? :-
"The Rt. Hon. Beilby, Baron Wenlock, &c., having vacated the office of Govr. of F. S. G. and its dependencies, the said office devolves, in virtue of x x x x x ?"

by departure from India with intent to return to Europe

I don't understand why. supposing that R. B. and the Native A.D.C. would be a couple of days' pay

It doesn't seem to me to be worth while

not appointed to the staff, the acting Governor for then would be a break in their service. It is understood that Lt. Winton Extra A.D.C., Lt. Col. Aighton Hong A.D.C., Subadar Major Muhammad Hanif, native A.D.C., & Surgeon Major Boring will join Sir Arthur Havelock's staff. If so, it would be convenient if the H.M. would appoint them to his staff for the short interregnum.

This would not necessitate the filling up of the other appointments sanctioned for the personal staff.

File IV It is submitted that under 24 & 25 Vic Cap 67 § 27 the acting Governor has no option in regard to the appointment of a temporary member of Council. The Statute provides that when a vacancy happens & no person provisionally appointed to succeed thereto is present, then, and on every such occasion, such vacancy shall be supplied by the appointment of the Governor in Council i.e. by appointment made by the Governor in Council.

Under 3rd Will 10 up 05 856 the Executive Govt shall be administered by a Governor & Three Councillors.
 This has been reduced by the recent Army Act abolishing the appointment of Commander in Chief to a Governor and two councillors: but the proceedings of a Govt composed of a Governor and one member of Council would apparently be illegal

File I The officers are entered in order of precedence vide page 102 of the Lawrence & Syme Press Almanac. The Judge of the City Civil Court does not find a place in the list, but it appears reasonable that he should come between the 1st Judge, Small Cause Court, & the Judges of the S.C. Court, or between numbers 72 & 77.

This would place him above the Presidency Magistrate.
 In regard to the words "His Excellency" attention is invited to the remarks above on file I

File VI The H. M.'s attention is invited to the

If he is not in the list, we can't put him in - But the Chief Judge of the Small Cause Ct. should be added, in his proper place in the list of the officers ordered to be present at the Station

I did not know this - It appears right that the Proclamation should be read

This may as well be got ready in print - I don't know about Capt Winton (by the way, is he a captain?) - A space might be left in which to fill in his name when we know

7/3/96

Arthur Havelock of appointment, under which all servants, Officers and Soldiers within the limits of the Presidency are ordered to recognize him as Governor & to submit themselves accordingly in conformity with law.
 Unless the proclamation be read at the head of the troops they will have no means of knowing the obligations placed upon them by Her Majesty's Commission.

This portion of the draft was specially settled in consultation with the Lt Genl Mansfield Clarke.

File VII A copy roughly filled in is submitted for the H. M.'s approval before being put into print.
 Separate action is being taken in regard to the ceremonial at the Council Chamber

J.D.B.
 5.3.96

J.S. Attention is invited to the following variation between the warrants for Arthur Havelock. In the former it says (vide top of page 96 of the Handbook)

"And we do hereby authorise & empower you, the said Beilby Baron Wen-lock, to take upon you, hold, & enjoy the said office upon your arrival in the said Presidency" while in the latter the passage runs as follows "and we do hereby authorise and empower you, the said Sir Arthur Elphinstone Havelock, to take upon you hold, & enjoy, the said office upon the same becoming vacant."

This would take effect did Sir A.H. arrive before Lord Wellock's departure.
As he does not however, § 63 of 3. & 4. Will IV, C.S., comes in.

Note for the Hon:

I don't know what the diffis of any practical importance - Sir A.H. cannot draw pay or allowance any provision until he does arrive.

My dear Moss,

Thinking that you gone I wrote to West, the other day about arrangements at the Station on the arrival of Sir Havelock. He sent me over the plan which was run, when the Viceroy came here, and is now required. There will probably not be many at the station except those who to come. I think that upon the occasion of the Viceroy or Prince of Wales I forgot which the P. & O. issued the tickets but would in future have nothing to do with it. Admission must be by ticket as if Sir Arthur and Harry are admitted they will surround the whole place as if we must issue the tickets I propose to issue the notice of which the enclosed is a copy - publishing it in the three principal newspapers. I am, Sir, your

PORT ST. GEORGE,

My dear Mrs.

Thinking that you had forgotten I wrote to Mrs. the other day, about arrangements at the Station on the arrival of Sir A. Hailelock. He sent me over the place which was followed when the train came - Nothing so elaborate is now required as there will probably not be very many at the Station expecting him. I wish to come, but, talking to me, said that upon the occasion when the Treasury or Finance Committee came to a vote which the R.C. & would the Treasury but would in future have nothing to do with it.

Whichever must be by ticket as the Dickson and Harry are admitted they will swamp the whole place, so if we must issue the tickets I propose to issue the notice of which the enclosed is a copy, published in the three principal newspapers.
If you agree to this will you kindly let me know: apparently we can afford to about 300 tickets I think. Making allowance for military men who will have to attend and the Hunt Comm.
etc. That none could be issued, I should like a reply as soon as

The correct thing. Hurd

My dear Victor

Yes. I think we had better send the Asst. S. G. to Raichore, not the S. G. - The S. G., however, will probably still be chasing the plabs or shooting or burning them & we cannot see reason or his presence in Madras.

As to a military officer, we can't, I think, decide on sending him until Capt Lowndes turns up. Where he is, no one seems to know. We must have someone here to see that things are ready in J. House -

Your invitation seems according to my view is correct. If the same was not used it would run by the Lt. General Commanding the Army. I wrote to H.E. Lt.

G. Clarke and he struck out "1864 Excellency". If it is thought desirable to let the 1864 appear the name might as in the case of General Order appear in lieu of the Office.

I did not insert anything about dress I don't think in the Notification as far as for the way ^{any} things about the I can remember or find it has uniform of the ^{British} appeared in the case of military officers only about the things in my Notifications of the Civil officers, kind. The military authorities have as the ^{Drapping} ^{standards} ^{standards} issued their own orders about dress. May the Notification be as corrected the edition which I have marked in brackets in red ink being omitted.

File II.

If you consider fit the word vacated see note on might appear in the Notification under Office. ~~When it is not the~~ of England. The usual form has been will be used.

I have nothing more to say on this file.

I think the practice of sending letters by postcard on occasions such as these is prudent and that of refusing correspondence will turn out. All that can be said for it is that it is in accordance with long standing custom.

File III.

I do not see what harm would happen to any one other than Browning or

Very dear Rice

It is strange to say, I was talking over the arrangements & decoran-tions required at the Central ^{Station} on the arrival Sir H. Havelock when your letter arrived.

I send with this a plan shewing what was done when the Viceroy arrived - & this has been followed very closely on other similar occasions.

The train will be brought up to the departure platform, which will be completely covered with red cloth - right up to the Porch, by which H. E. Sir A. Havelock will drive off escorted by the Body Guard.

The allotment of tickets & seats as shown on the plan invariably gives rise to complaints the cause every one wants to get into the 1st or red block! - I think it a better plan to issue all the tickets of one color only - restricting the number of tickets to the seats available - A rope will be put up in front of the seats to keep the people from encroaching on the space for H. E. & staff to walk down to the Porch - & then people can sit where they like within the roped enclosure.

The Municipal Commission require a space allotted to them next to the Grand of Honor - to enable their President to read the Address of welcome.

The tickets are always issued by you in G. O. H. I will arrange the seats in any way you wish.

Please return the label when done with - or I will have a fresh one drawn to include any modification which you desire.

I have just received a telegram from Sir Arthur Havelock Begbie. Your arrangements for arrival approved except that I wish to stop an hour at Honam coming on with special engine. Will you kindly arrange ^{the} and fix hour of arrival in consultation with Railway officials. This will bring him in at 9 o'clock which it seems to me will be inconveniently late. Will the Military Authorities object to guard of honor being out so late. What do you think.

My dear Leighton.

A letter written by your deputy to my chief Clerk has been handed to me and I write to explain to you how matters stand. You have under the orders of Govt. to be at the station when Sir A. Havelock arrives. No one can leave until after he does and as he will be driven rapidly in a carriage & for no one following could - saying that nothing else stood in the way - possibly be up in time to see the very petty ceremony of reading very brief warrant which consists the whole business of taking over seat as Governor and which does not take five minutes. But the Governor will go out by the that he came into the fort and no carriages - excepting that of Commissioner of Police who is in charge of Police arrangements will be allowed after he has entered be allowed to pass.

occasion of Sir Arthur

Seat as Governor.

No. 366 of 1896.

Sheriff's Office,
HIGH COURT HOUSE,
Madras. 14th March 1896.

Dear Sir,

I am directed by the Sheriff of Madras to thank you for the card of admission to the Council Chamber, on the occasion of Sir Arthur Havelock assuming office as Governor of Fort St. George and its Dependencies.

The Sheriff has been informed that ladies also are to have the privilege of witnessing the ceremony and he therefore requests the favor of a card of admission for Mrs. Leighton.

Sheriff's Office,
HIGH COURT HOUSE,

Madras, 14th March 1896.

Dear Sir

I am obliged to you for your letter of date and the card enclosed, which however I beg to return herewith, as it is not required.

As the Sheriff of Madras will be in uniform, according to the published notification, no card is required by him.

I am moreover to remind you that by virtue of his office, as the leading citizen of Madras, it is his privilege and his duty to meet the new Governor as he alights from the Railway carriage on the Station platform.

form.

The Sheriff is also under the impression that his position entitles him to be a witness of the ceremony in the Council Chamber, and that if any ladies are admitted, no one has a better claim than he has, to ask that the privilege be extended to his wife.

I remain,

Dear Sir,

Yours obediently

R. A. Jackson
S. Sheriff of Madison.

The seal of the Government of Madras is a circular emblem. It features a central shield with a crown on top, flanked by two lions. Below the shield is a banner with the motto 'TRUTH ALONE TRIUMPHS'. The words 'GOVERNMENT OF' are arched over the top, and 'MADRAS' is arched at the bottom.

PORT ST. GEORGE.

March 14th 1896

John Blair

My dear P.
I send herewith the all night number of appointment and the young ladies for Personal Staff which have at Boston appointed to be signed on Monday. I have sent by S.P.C.

the Gazette Feb 4.

What am I to do with the enclosed.
Take no notice I did not think that Leighton was but perhaps such an Ans. better explaining he cannot well be in two places civilly that people cannot be in 2 at once and no one can leave places at the same time & that the space in The Council Chamber is too limited & inconvenient if they could be got the Station before Sir A. H. does.

He will be taken to the Station & the Council Chamber at a small place & much better than Sir A. H. can do.

If the Convention cannot be moved from here & Mrs. W. will have the United Lis. to Council House people coming into the room during the reading as brief as the ceremony will be.

If it is the Chief College of London the position of these subjects under the order of the table of Presbytery & low. (71)

All the "two rows" has occurred in consequence of ~~lengthy~~ ~~lengthy~~ appeals. But having sent out a ticket of admission to the Railway Station to the Sheriff. Now, he will not have done as I appear in uniform. The Deputy Sheriff sent to the Rail on behalf of Sir A. H. "and of invitation to the Council Chamber" & asking for one for Mr. Lighton. But with back saying that the Card was for admission to the platform and not for one for Mr. Lighton.

Then came the insignificant thunderbolt.

These arrangements are almost as much as the Rail Bill. I am seeing Sir A. H.'s telegram. which is rather a nuisance as it upset everything and one will have to do a lot over again.

Yours very sincerely
Jedburgh
