To Order

The Treasury Deputy Collector
Gaujam,
asks for permission to liquidate the debts of his two nephews by lending them, at 6 p.c. interest, the respective sums of Rs 500 and Rs 2000. Their estates, he says, would then be under his mortgage, but he would have nothing to do with their management.

The alternative he presents is his nephews reduced to beggary and a burden to him.

From Nos. 23 and 26 of the rules regulating the personal conduct of public servants it will be seen that the lending of money at interest to landholders within the Presidency is forbidden. The Tre. Dy. Collr. however explains that he is too poor to forego the interest, and that if he left his relations to their fate, he would eventually suffer.

It is submitted that if the facts of the case are as alleged it is a hard case and special sanction is accorded. But it seems advisable to ask the Director of Kistna to verify the particulars first.

For Orders

In Current 3648 the Treasury Deputy Collector, Ganjam, asked for permission to liquidate the debts of his two nephews by lending them, at 6 p.c. interest, the respective sums of Rs 500 & Rs 2000. Their estates, he said, would then be under his mortgage, but he would have nothing to do with their management.

The alternative he presented was his nephews, reduced to beggary & a burden to him.

Nos 23 & 26 of the Rules regulating the conduct of public servants prohibit the lending of money at interest to landholders in their the Presidency. The Ins. Dy.
Collr, however, explained that he was too poor to forego the interest & that if he left his relations to their fate he would eventually suffer.

The matter was referred to the Collector of Kistna for report in Enclat. 2699 of 1895 vide C. 1072

He states that the petitioner has three nephews. One of them Mallala Venkappa who wants the loan of Rs 2000 refuses to save his creditors or pay particular debts. According to the Statement of his sister's husband his liabilities amount to Rs 216.4.3

and which his income amounts to Rs 245. The Collector ^{therefore} does not consider him ^{to be} in need of a loan.

Of the other nephews Jaga
- no The Mohun Roy ^{said to be} employed at Calcutta in the Railway Dept + Kirtia Sastri is a student in a Law School.
The latter professes ignorance of any debt contracted by his mother who died long ago.

It is submitted that sanction cannot be accorded under the circumstances but that the petitioner may be informed that if he is prepared to submit full particulars the case may be again considered.

It is submitted
that the petitioner ^{cw} ^{27/3/96} may be informed that from enquiries made the Govt sees no necessity for the Rs 500 loan and that in the absence of full particulars - when the applicant for the loan has declined to give - is not prepared to sanction the Rs 2000 loan.
