C. No. 1224

FOR ORDERS.

The best plan is to send to the S.G. to arrange for the two officers at Cannanore to see him

SS
6/4/96

Mr. Pope asked for six months special leave on account of ill. health, but was informed that ill ^{health} was no ground for special leave and that he must obtain a medical certificate. The Collector of South Canara now recommends that a Medical Board may be assembled at Calicut, a journey to Madras being considered inadvisable.

In Malabar there are the following commissioned medical officers:-

- (1) District Medical & Sanitary officer*
- (2) Surgeon in charge of the Native Regiment at Cannanore*
- (3) Surgeon Captain Fearnside, Cannanore.*

certificate by any two of these officers will be sufficient if they cannot assemble together and if the St. Medical & Sanitary officer; Mangalore certifies that Mr. Pope's health does not permit his coming to Madras (Art. 897 C.S.R.)
