relieved of the charge of the sub-collectorate and arrangements made for the conduct work of the sub-division. It is presumed that the collector will be able to ~~manage~~ the district with his present staff for the 13 or 14 days that Mr Campbell will be away. He has however been told that he should apply to the Revenue Dept for a temporary Dy. Collr. in case the services of one are found to be absolutely necessary.

Mr Campbell is not likely to return to his sub-collectorate at any rate for some time to come. The Officer to take his place will have to be found and proposals will be submitted to the Govt. very shortly.
