GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From Colonel M. J. KING-HARMAN, Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla, the 7th May 1896, No. 1239-B.

Under section 16 of Act XX of 1869, as revised by Act X of 1896, certain extended limits of service are laid down for volunteers in India, and under section 27, as introduced by paragraph 7 of Act X of 1896, the Governor-General in Council is empowered to call out volunteers for service in cases of emergency. It is, however, provided by paragraph 9 of Act X of 1896 that the revised sections 16 and 27 above referred to will not apply to any volunteer who was enrolled before that Act (X of 1896) commenced to have effect, that is, before the 13th March 1896, unless he consents in writing to be bound by them. I am now directed to request that, under the orders of the Governor in Council, you will obtain, through the Lieutenant-General Commanding, statements showing whether the volunteers who were enrolled before the 13th March 1896 are willing, or unwilling, to come under the provisions of Act X of 1896. The declaration of the volunteers might be taken in the accompanying form.

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,
Public Department.

Sir,

Under section 16 of Act XX of 1869, as revised by Act X of 1896, certain extended limits of service are laid down for volunteers in India, and under section 27, as introduced by paragraph 7 of Act X of 1896, the Governor General in Council is empowered to call out volunteers for service in cases of emergency. It is, however, provided by paragraph 9 of Act X of 1896 that the revised sections 16 and 27 above referred to will not apply to any volunteer who was enrolled before that Act (X of 1896) commenced to have effect, that is, before the 13th March 1896, unless he consents in writing to be bound by them. I am now directed to request that under the orders of the Governor in Council you will obtain, through the Lieutenant General Commanding, statements showing whether the volunteers who were enrolled before the 13th March 1896 are willing, or unwilling, to come under the provisions of Act X of 1896. The declaration of the volunteers might be taken in the accompanying form.
