FOR ORDERS.

The best plan would, perhaps, be to let Mr. Thompson change places with one of the recently arrived junior civilians. The postings of the latter will be found in G.O. R. 1497 21. 12. 95. There is another unpaired Assistant Mr. Harris - in Samarra but the northern districts require a regular supply of junior officers.

C.S. Mr. Ashe & Mr. Thompson 2/11/96. might exchange places. Mr.

A look thing and sturdy enough. Mr. Harris will probably pass at the examination now going on and will be soon absorbed 2/11/96.

This might be done Mr. Wier may be trusted to look after Mr. A.

Dear Mr Price.

Mr Arthur Thompson who was sent here as my Assistant nearly a year ago. has since his arrival in the District suffered a great deal from fever. He is just now recovering from a bad attack of remittent fever which lasted 21 days. and has left him much prostrated. He wishes however to present himself at made on January 6th for at an interview with the Medical officer in attendance consider he may do as provided he goes by sea.

I write to suggest that after this examination Mr Thompson may be transferred to some less malarious district. He does not seem to be able to stand men who are generally considered the healthy ones in this district and his health has already ~~been~~ been considerably affected. His medical Attendant has informed me that the considerations are changed to be highly desirable

I am

Yours sincerely

Robert
