As far as work is concerned, I have no idea whatever Mr. Rayappa Chari has done his work as Head Assistant. I think enquiries ought to be made before he is appointed to act as Sub-Collector.

The Gov. of India has sanctioned the acting appointments of Mr. Srinivasa Aiyar as Dist. Judge of Trichinopoly and Tirunelveli and of Mr. Rajagopala Chariyer as Sub. Collector of Coimbatore. Draft I order on the telegram and Minute II of appl. of Mr. Rajagopala Chariyer are submitted - the latter for H. E. the Governor's signature. The other appls. in this arrangement have already been passed.

Mr. Twigg has just written to the Chief Secretary complaining of the arrangement under which he will be ^{temporarily} deposed of his Sub. Collector owing to Mr. Ballin being placed in charge of the Madras Court from its re-opening (22nd June) until Mr. Pinkey joins who will be relieved by Mr. Horsfall at Bellary on the 29th idem, join. There is no Assistant at present available to act as Head Col. of Madras and Mr. ~~Twigg~~ ^{Pinkey} is the only feasible arrangement appears to be that of putting a Dy. Col. in charge of this division. The arrangement as regards Mr. Ballin holding charge of the Madras Court will not last for more than ten days if Mr. Pinkey moves quickly.
