Asking for a Sub-Collector

in Mr. Batten's place.

7-07-1856

Camp Kiamur

6th June 1856.

Dear Mr. Price

I write to ask whether I shall have a Sub Comm? in Battani place. during his absence, which I suppose will run to 3 weeks or a month at least.
It is not a time when the Sub Comm should be without an officer. An anti-Kallar movement was started some time ago north of Dindigul, and has been spreading rapidly.

collected with the Kallars.

The villagers decline to pay any more Kaval fees, form a sort of insurance fund of their own, arrange for their own watching, and boycott the Kallars. In the north of Dindigul taluk where there are only a house or two of Kallars in each village planted with the express view of working the Kaval system, the Kallars accept the inevitable & pack off to their old Kallar country Southwards. Obviously however there may be trouble when the movement approaches the borders of Kallar land, where Kallars are more numerous. Very careful watching is necessary on the part of the Divisional Officer. Batter may I think be able to finish his jamabandi before he has to join, but the rest of us are full up to the end of the month with jamabandi. A main objection to being without a Sub-Collector is that the work of the Subdivision will drift still further into arrears.

I would ask for a very early reply to "Palmi" within reach of which I shall be till the 13th inst.

Yours truly
Will.

D.O. No 350 from Mr. Twigg

Submitted for the C.S.'s orders.
We cannot find Mr. Twigg a Sub.
Collector for the short period between the opening of the Madras Court (22nd June) and the date on which Mr. Purbey, who can leave Bellary on the 27th ^{even} at Madras. The following D.O.'s are submitted for approval.

My dear Purbey,

As Madras will be without a Sub. Col^r from the date on which the D. Court re-opens (22nd inst) until 30th June, I am to ask you to take as little joining time as possible from Bellary 30th might hand over charge of the Bellary Court to the Sheroladar on the 27th (Horsefall is due on the 29th) and proceed at once to Madras

C.S.

As regards Rammad - a good smart Deputy Col. would probably be better than Mr. Rajapopalachari who would probably fail if he had to deal with a Kallar risk.

If a European Officer should be sent to the probability of trouble in the Madras District he sent to Rammad. But is his transportation at Rajapattinam: his division could be taken by a Deputy Col.

FOR ORDERS.

The arrangement ^{already} sanctioned as regards the Madura Court is that Mr. A. D. Pinhey should go there after relief by Mr. Horsfall and that during the interval between the re-opening of the ~~Madura~~ Court (22nd June) and Mr. Pinhey's arrival the Sub. Col. of Madura, Mr. Ballou, should hold charge of the Dist. Court.
Mr. Pinhey will ^{under present arrangements} be at Madura on the morning of the 29th June, Mr.
Horsfall relieving him ^{at Bellary} on the 27th idem.

From the telegram in C. No. 1922 it is clear that the Col. of Madura cannot now do without a Sub. Collector for the above short period and the best plan seems to be to inform Mr. F. M. Horsfall that he

C 11/6

must forego a week of his vacation and join at Bellary by the 20th in order to admit of Mr. Pinkey taking charge of the Madras Court on the 22nd

It is also submitted for consideration whether ~~the~~ any change should at present take place in the Head Constabulary of Madras. Under the arrangement in the linked file, Mr. Rajagopal Chari will go to Erode immediately and Mr. Dy. Col. take his place at Ramnad. It would seem preferable to place a Dy. Col. in charge of the Sub. Magistrate of formations & not to disturb any ~~arrangements~~ sub-divisional officers in Madras.

C.S. The full rank of this 11.6.96 Mr. H. W. Bliss was written in accordance with my instructions.
If it is decided that Mr. Horsfall is to have his full recess - he can hardly stumble at leaving a few days when he is transferred to Bellary - the only thing possible seems to be to let Mr. Ross stop his special duty for a short time & send him to act at Madras

My dear Pinkey,

I write to tell you that as it is very probable that there will be trouble with the Kallars in Madras, the arrangement that Batten was to act as judge there until you could join on relief by Horsfall has been set aside, and that Horsfall has been instructed to relieve you at Bellary on the 19th so that you may be able to assume charge of the Madras Court on the morning of the day (22nd Instant) on which it re-opens.

Kindly arrange accordingly. I am sorry that you should be troubled about in this way but there is no help for it.

Yours sincerely

My dear Horsfall,

It has been found impossible owing to trouble with the Kollars being very probable, to give effect to the arrangement under which Batten was to act as St. Judge & Sessions Judge of Madras from the time that that Court re-opens (22nd Instant) until Pinkney could join on relief by you.

I am therefore directed to tell you that you must forego a portion of your recess and relieve Pinkney by the 19th Inst. so that he may be able to take charge of the Madras Court on the date on which it re-opens.

Yours sincerely
