Emigration.

Forwarding, with remarks, to the Government of India, report on the returned emigrants from La Réunion by S.S. Matiana.

BACK PAPERS.

at this port, but went direct to Calcutta by the same steamer on the same evening. The number embarked from Réunion as per Pondicherry list was fifty-eight; one entered on the list did not arrive, but another emigrant whose name is not on the list arrived. There was neither birth nor death during the voyage. Therefore the number actually landed was fifty-eight.

2. The emigrants landed were all in good health except one of them who was found a little ill and sent to the hospital after landing. He was discharged from the hospital two days after. Fifty of the emigrants landed are said to be paupers and the remaining eight are supposed to have brought a savings of Rs. 1,386 amongst them. Twenty-four poor emigrants got a secour of Rs. 50 between them to assist them to their villages, and the same people with the addition of two emigrants received clothes on board before landing.

3. All were questioned; none made any complaint.

4. The S.S. Matiana left for Calcutta the same evening with six Calcutta emigrants and the Protector of Emigrants at that port was duly informed of it and furnished with the necessary list.

Certified that sixty-four emigrants embarked at Bourbon on S.S. Wardha and were transhipped to S.S. Matiana at Mauritius for Pondicherry and that all of them except six Calcutta emigrants who go direct to Calcutta were landed safely and in good health. Also certified that no contagious disease (except mumps) existed on board during the present voyage from Bourbon to Pondicherry. They were under my medical charge on both steamers.
