The Honorable J. F. Price

CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

Judicial DEPARTMENT,
 MADRAS.

At the request of the Secretary to the General Committee of the G. P. Jaggarau observatory at Vizagapatam, I have the honor to forward herewith, for approval and publication in the Fort St. George Gazette, a draft notification under Act 1 of 1894 for the acquisition of a piece of land required for the construction of a thermometer shed and a building to hold a Beckley's Anemograph in connection with the observatory. As the funds of the observatory are managed by a Committee appointed by the Government of India, I think

Tirumayam, Ponamaravati and Arimalam. ^(X) With the formation of the Pudukkottai district, the following changes were ordered by the Government of Tamil Nadu:

(i) 5 villages from the Thanjavur Panchayat Union, 30 villages from Tiruvonam Panchayat Union, and 23 villages from the Peravurani Panchayat Union, were transferred to the Tiruvarangulam Panchayat Union.

(ii) 7 villages from the Sethubavachatram Panchayat Union were transferred to Arantangi Panchayat Union.

There is also a proposal to bifurcate the Tiruvarangulam Panchayat Union, which has become more unwieldy due to the inclusion of the transferred area.

So there are ten Panchayat Unions in the Pudukkottai district now. The Pudukkottai district now has 191 panchayats as detailed below:
