G.No. 2582.

FOR ORDERS.

With his letter No. 194, dated 9th March 1896 the Surgeon General submitted a minute of appointment of Assistant Surgeon Saldanha to act as Additional Medical Officer, Ootacamund, for six months from the 1st April. As the Government was not proceeding to the hills till the middle of that month the date in the minute was altered to the 15th April.

The Surgeon General had, however, taken action for Mr. Saldanha's relief and on his representation, G.O. No. 440, dated 4th April 1896 altered the date to the 1st April.

It now appears that Mr. Saldanha handed over charge at Mellore on the 23rd March and did not receive orders to join at Ootacamund until the 7th April and he joined on the 9th. He exceeded his ordinary joining time, which was nine days, and the Accountant General has placed his pay from 23rd March to 9th April under objection. The Surgeon General now asks that joining time may be extended under Article 198, Civil Service Regulations.

Under the Article quoted the reasons for the extension should be stated in the order and they should be for
