Referred to the Accountant
General for remarks.

If no member of the Indian Civil Service or Statutory service was acting as Head Assistant, Salem, for the period 11th to 27th April, it appears to be doubtful, whether Mr. Gillespie should during that period be considered the junior Ag Head Assistant for the purposes of article 120 of the C.S.R. The Head Asst's division was probably placed under a Dy. Collector and in such ^{cases} it seems fair that the appointment unfilled by a member ^{either of} of the above mentioned services should be viewed as that held by the junior officer in the grade concerned.

The Accountant General is requested to state his opinion on the claim to $\frac{3}{4}$ of the acting allowance

SIR,

With reference to your memorandum N^o 2331 dated the 1st of October 1895, I have the honour to inform you that Mr. Gillespie, Assistant Collector, Calicut was appointed to act as Head Assistant Salem in consequence of Mr. Bedford going on privilege leave. He took charge of this office on the 15th March 1895, and under Madras Government Order N^o 504 Public dated 10 July 1894 he was considered a junior officer acting in a privilege leave vacancy and was allowed threefourths of the acting allowance ordinarily admissible. While so acting he Assistant. He gave over charge on the 13th April and took charge on the 16th idem. No officer was appointed as Head Assistant Salem until the return of Mr. Bedford from privilege leave on 28th April 1895. The full acting allowance which was payable in this vacancy from the day of Mr. Bedford's return was allowed to Mr. Gillespie upto 16th April 1895. From the 17th to 27th April 1895. From the 17th April 1895 Mr. Gillespie was involved in another privilege arrangement and as there was no change of station he was not entitled to acting allowance for that arrangement.

I have the honor to be,
 Your most obedient servant, J. C. Harrison

act as special at Salem. He was appointed to the post at Malabar from the 13th April 1895. The full acting allowance which was payable in this vacancy from the day of Mr. Bedford's return was allowed to Mr. Gillespie upto 16th April 1895. From the 17th to 27th April 1895. From the 17th April 1895 Mr. Gillespie was involved in another privilege arrangement and as there was no change of station he was not entitled to acting allowance for that arrangement.

Endorsement of the Revenue Department dated 10th September 1895 No 1442 R. on proceedings of the Board of Revenue. Land-Revenue dated 5th September 1895 No 4463.

Referred to the Accountant

If no member of the Indian Civil Service or Statutory Service was acting as Head Assistant, Salem, for the period 11th to 27th April, it appears to be doubtful whether Mr. Gillespie should during that period be considered the junior Acting Head Assistant for the purposes of Article 120 of the Civil Service Regulations. The Head Assistant's division was probably placed under a Deputy Collector and in such a case it seems fair that the appointment unfilled by a member of either of the above mentioned Services should be viewed as that held by the junior officer in the grade concerned.
