SIR,

I have the honour to state that MR. K. Krishna Rao Garu, sub judge Godavari has requested this office to add a note in the "History of Services of Gazetted officers under Literary Works" that he is the Author of "Chandrasasa or the Lord of the Fair Forger", a Drama in English Prose and Verse. I would therefore enquire whether fiction should be treated as work of "General public interest" under the orders contained in Government order No 2031 Public dated 29 September 1886 and a note made in the History of Services as desired by the Sub-Judge.

I have the honour to be,
