stating the extent, owner's name, description and price of the property he intends purchasing.

It will ^{be} observed that Mr. C. does not intend to enter into possession which on the active list. Please see para 2 at page 2 of the pamphlet. The rules regarding transactions with natives at pages 9 and 10 do not apply in this case. There seems no reason why Mr. C. should be ~~prevented~~ prevented from entering into the proposed agreement so long as he derives no benefit from the estate before his retirement.

Mr. N asks for a very long reply.

I can see no harm in an agreement to purchase at a future date provided that the purchase is not actually effected while Mr. N. is in the service

My dear Price

A friend

the Shervaroys, has just offered ~~me~~ to sell me a property there; I am inclined to buy it, though asked a high figure, since I want a settled home where I can carry on ~~that~~ quiet study and continuous ^{independent} work which are impossible to a collector.

Therefore, ~~we~~ ~~may now~~; without
of rule, enter into
agreement to purchase
estate, though the actual sale and transfer of ~~the estate~~ will not take place till March, from which date I propose, should I decide to purchase, to ask permission to resign
the Service on pension
I ~~still~~ intend ^{in any case} to go to Europe in March,
returning in November,

so that if
any commands
shall be glad to
best towards car
them out.

Will you kindly
me a reply by return
by wire.

Yours sincerely

F. A. Nicholson
