Copy of letter from the Vice-Chairman, Chamber of Commerce, Madras, dated 27th. August 1896, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, Simla.

This Chamber understands that the proposals of the Home Government regarding the arrangements for the new mail contract, which comes into force in February 1898, are now with the Government of India, and it ventures to hope that the Indian Chambers of Commerce will be ~~be~~ afforded an opportunity of expressing their opinion about them, before a decision is arrived at.
