Simla, the 10th August 1896.

To
THE CHIEF SECRETARY
TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

Sir,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 439, "Public," dated the 4th April 1896, submitting a memorial from Mir Sultan Mohiuddin Sahib, a grandson of the late Subadar-Major Nuruddin Khan, Bahadur, Shujat Jung, formerly Aide-de-Camp to the Commander in Chief, Madras Army, praying for a continuance in his favour of the family pension of ninety-five rupees (Rs. 95) a month which was enjoyed by his father, under orders of the Government of Madras passed in 1882. His Excellency the Governor of Madras in Council strongly recommends that this pension may be continued, as an act of grace, to the present memorialist for his life, on condition that he maintains out of the pension the widow, and the helpless women and children, of the late Subadar-Major's immediate family who are now living.

The Hon'ble Mr. Bliss has recorded a minute of dissent from this recommendation.

2. In reply I am to say that, the papers in this case having been duly laid before His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor General, the Government of India regret they are unable to accede to the recommendation of the Government of Madras on behalf of the memorialist. They are, however, pleased to sanction the payment to the widow of Subadar-Major Nuruddin Khan, for her life, of the pension of ninety-five rupees (Rs. 95) a month referred to, with effect from the date on which it ceased to be paid, in 1895. Upon her decease the pension will entirely cease.
