To

The Chief Secretary to Government, Public Department.

Has the honour to invite the Chief Secretary's attention to G.O.No.
1478 Public, dated 7th October 1879 and to suggest the desirability of taking orders as to whether that order may not be modified or cancelled so as to obviate references to Government upon a matter with which heads of Departments should be competent to deal finally.

Remuneration

FOR ORDERS.

I have no objection to the course proposed. The truth however, is that the publication of these lists of men thrown out of employ is perfectly useless, in the way it is worked. Heads of Depts in which there are vacancies must consult the list - It is really desired to provide for men thrown out of employ, the Heads of Depts ought to have a regular system under which (1) all officers subordinate to them who have power to fill vacancies shall be compelled to fill vacancies as they occur to men shown in the list, and (2) any man shown in the list who refuses a reasonable offer shall at once be struck off & get no pension -

H. C.
25/8/96

The order of 1879 may be cancelled I don't think this point is very compelling of Depts to offer vacancies shown in the list and be justified. H. C. 26/8/96

In 1863 at the suggestion of the Accountant General this Govt approved of the practice observed in Bombay of notifying in the Gazette the names of subordinates thrown out of employ on account of reduction of establishment. G.O. No. 524, dated 17th August 1863.

Ten years later the Govt of India, with a view to minimise the number of applications for compensation pension from persons losing their appointments through no fault of theirs, issued a circular containing several suggestions for remedying the evil. One of the plans proposed by India was to publish regularly in the Gazette a list of such men with details as to their status and

and qualifications and to require heads of offices to appoint from the list on the occurrence of vacancies. G.O. No 1679 Finl, dated 13th Novr 1873.

In reply to a reference made by the Finl Dept on the above circular the Reve Dept stated H. M. that the lists would be published and heads of depts urged to give employment to men thrown out as far as was practicable. G.O. No 1410, Reve, d 12th Decr 1873

The Finl Dept, in passing orders on the G.O. stated, without however referring to the Order No 521 of 17-8-63, that the views expressed by the Reve Dept would be adopted, and heads of depts were directed accordingly.

Subsequently the Reve Dept ordered that a list of persons thrown out of employ, for the whole Presidency should be prepared by the Board of Reve for the various depts under its control and published half-yearly in the Fort St George Gazette. G.O. No 794, Reve d 26th June 74.

FOR ORDERS.

* G.O. No 465. Finl d 19-3-74 D

* G.O. No 828, Pub, d 1-6-80.

In the Finl Dept the Accountant General was asked to prepare and publish a similar list for departments other than those under the Board of Reve. G.O. No 1181 Finl, d 17th July 1874 Misc.

Up to the year 1879 voluminous lists containing a great deal of unnecessary detail were published, but in that year the Govt directed that there after each dept should, at certain intervals and under the special sanction of Govt, publish a separate list, omitting the remarks column which served no useful purpose. G.O. No 7478. Pub. d 7th Octr 1879.

The interval at which the lists should be published was fixed at one year (G.O. No 624, Pub. d 30th April 1880) and it was further ordered that the lists should appear in the month of January, the Supdt, Govt Press, making arrangements for printing the lists of ^{the} several depts in one supplement of the ^{Sarettay} Gazette.

The substance of these orders is embodied in the last sentence of para 3 of Board's Standing Order No. 244 which runs thus:-

"A list of public servants thrown out of employment through no fault of their own should be published in the Gazette; and in filling up such vacancies as may occur in their offices, collectors will appoint from this list, as far as is compatible with the due claims of others."

An examination of the Gazette Volumes from 1882 up to date shows that the only heads of depts who prepare and publish these lists are the Collectors of Districts, Supdt of Stamps, collector of Sea Customs, Madras, the Inam and the Settlement Commissioners and the Supdt. Revenue Survey. This is perhaps due to the fact that under the Revenue Dept there are numerous temporary (quasi permanent) establishments and that men belonging to these are ^{often} thrown out of employ. ~~when necessary~~

~~mentioned.~~

It has also been ascertained from enquiries in the Revenue Dept that the Supdt of Revenue Survey, who is not under the Board, is the only officer who submits the list for the approval of Govt. In none of the Chief Secretariat Depts is a list of this kind received. Notwithstanding the Public Order of 1879 the Board of Revenue seems to approve of the lists sent by collectors without troubling Govt with them.

The Revenue Dept now asks whether the Order of 1879 may not be modified or cancelled so as to obviate references to Govt upon a matter with which heads of depts should be competent to deal finally.

As this G.O. has practically become a dead letter, except as far as the Supdt of Revenue Survey is concerned, it is subd that it may be formally cancelled.

heads of depts empowered to publish the lists on their own responsibility;
