21. July 1896.

My dear Mr. Price

In reply to your letter as it takes a man out of d.o. of the 16th I am directed the people & into odd cases to state that the Board has no objection to his district had no reason to find fault with headman's work as an executive officer.
In the year 1891 when headman was Sub Collector of N. arcot, his Collector W. Le Tasse reported him to the Board for absence from the district without leave, and the Board

This letter is for

by means of the objection in a letter - rather than the was constrained to censure headcod. The B.P. said - "The Board regrets to have to place on record that Mr. headcod was guilty of a grave fault - and that too as regards subordination to the Col. and readiness for work, which are matters of the greatest importance in the case of young civilians" -

This was in August 81.
and prior to that date he had been reported for the same fault - viz - for absence without leave - But ~~after~~ the order above quoted, and it may be noted that headcod was not transferred to the Indian branch until Sept. 84 - the Board was not made aware of any want of capacity or honesty on his part -

Yours sincerely
Reckers

In the Registrar's letter in go. no 644 J.C.S. 31.3.96, it was reported that the High Court had taken Mr MacLeod to task for the inordinate delay in the disposal of certain criminal cases.

I would suggest to H.L. that, as Mr. MacLeod does not appear to be successful as a judge, it might be well that he should be tried in a District - He is believed to be fond of shooting & it has indeed been suggested that it was because he wanted to go out shooting that he scamped the
