Kuching.

Sir,

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of Your Excellency's despatch relating to the Indian Immigration Scheme.

- Mr Sands has had four years and a half experience on Estates in Ceylon employing Tamil Coolies, and he informs me he is conversant with the language, and can make himself clearly understood in speaking to them - he has no medical knowledge.
- Dr Selbie is a graduate of the Aberdeen University and holds excellent certificates as a qualified medical man, is the Government Doctor in Sarawak - in charge of Hospitals, Dispensary, with a considerable staff under his authority - He will be appointed to visit and report on the Tamil Coolies as required.
- Five copies shall be duly sent to Your Excellency of any rule and orders that may be made, respecting the Indian Coolies.
- Also half yearly reports shall be drawn according to the form enclosed in Your Excellency's despatch.

No. 1397
46-8

6. At any time that an order be sent for Indian Coolies by any person or Company in this Country, a medical man, as well as an agent or licensing recruiter, shall be appointed in the district from which this country is permitted to obtain Coolies - and at such time as this is done the name of the medical man as well as agent shall be notified to Your Excellency.

I have &c.,

(Signed) C. Brooke,

Rajah.

HIS Excellency Sir C.B.H. Mitchell, G.C.M.G.,

Governor &c. &c. &c. &c., Singapore.
