Respected Sir, I have been informed by the manager, that under the recent G.O. I could not be granted leave for more than three months. But I respectfully beg to submit that it would be a material loss to me if the one year's leave already granted to me is now cancelled. I am still a Probationer in the Police Dept., and the probationary period lasts for two years.
I will therefore be at a great disadvantage if before my confirmation in the Police Dept., I am made to lose my permanent appointment.
The present G.O. is not absolutely prohibitive but only restrictive with regard to granting leave. I can therefore be granted leave with the sanction of Government. I may also state that the Govt. in the same G.O. — sanctioned leave to two Inspectors who came from Anantapur Collectorate, on the representation of the Board. As my case is Yours faithfully,

SIR,

I have the honor to forward herewith in the Observatory and a Probationer in the Police Department.

2. Unaware of the existence of G.O. No. 1516 Revenue dated 4th September 1891, I gave him one year's leave of absence "on other duty" and I have the honor to request that - this may be sanctioned.

3. In support of this request I would point out that Mr. Rangarau has not chance of promotion in this office as his

SIR,

Enclosures.

With reference to Endorsement No. 1648 dated 19 August 1896, on letter from the Government (Economic), dated 11 August 1896, No. 143 (returned), I have the honor to say that if the applicant B. P. Ranga Rao may be allowed to have a lien on his permanent appointment until 20 April 1898 or until the date of his confirmation as an Inspector of Police, which may be sooner, I shall be much obliged. He has been well reported upon since he joined the Police on 20 April 1896 and is likely to turn out a good Inspector. I cannot, however, confirm him without a longer training than he has yet had.
