Dear Sir

I enclose herewith a letter from Sir Phillips Hutchins. I have already reported my arrival in Bombay to the Secretary Public Department, since I do not propose to proceed to Madras for two or three weeks to come. Hence possibly I

My Dear Price

Mr Dadachangi is another of the native gentlemen who has just joined the I.C.S. & been appointed to Madras.
He hails from Bombay & is therefore quite as much a stranger to Madras as Mr Bannerji. He has done very well at both the examinations & stands first of all the men allotted to Madras. He has been $3\frac{1}{2}$ years in England having previously taken his B.A. degree at Bombay. His father holds high office in Baroda.

Please instruct him whom to call on & give him as good a district as you can at starting

Yours very truly
P. W. M. M. M.

Sir

I am a member of the Civil Service & have been assigned to the Madras Presidency. I beg to report my arrival in Bombay by the S.S. Thames on the 1st December, as per list orders issued by the Under-Secretary of State. I do not purpose proceeding to Madras for two or three weeks to come. If you deem any instructions necessary, you will be kind enough to send them to the above address.

I have the honor to be, Sir your obedient servant

FOR ORDERS.

The C. S. usually draws out a list for the respective postings of these young gentlemen all at once - and I sh^d. be obliged if he would send up his proposals en bloc.

If an Indian considers that 3 1/2 years in England entitles him to a good place - what about Englishmen who have lived in England all their lives?

Why this gentleman should be specially sent to a cool and pleasant - district I am unable to see. He ^{has} ~~been~~ generally ~~known~~ as that first arrival gets the best district - available. ~~and~~ there who come last being allotted to ^{such as} ~~these districts~~ are less popular.
