The undersigned has the honour to request the Secretary to Govt. Revd Dept, to be so good as to state the object of communicating to the Public Dept the G.O.s noted in the margin regarding fortnightly returns of famine work. As far as can be seen there is nothing in these orders calling for any action in this dept. The undersigned would be obliged if, in communicating such G.O.s hereafter to the depts of the Chief Secretary at the Necessity for the communication were pointed out by indicating, either in the body of the order itself or in the despatch accompanying it, whether the order is sent for information generally or for information or for action with reference to any particular portion of the correspondence.
