retirement.

FOR ORDERS.

A letter from Mr W. G. Underwood asking to be permitted to resign the service from the 1st proximo was received yesterday.
He has an usual to go to the Accra General for report & he has not as yet necessary that he should state when he wishes his annuity paid. A reference is being made to him on the subject.
The Session begins on the 2nd August and Mr Underwood has given ready consent intimation to Govt. of his intention to retire, is ready that it will be hardly possible for his successor is nominated at once for him to join by the 2nd proximo.
It is submitted that Mr Underwood may be informed by wire that Govt. cannot permit him to retire until his successor is appointed and joins.
He is cannot but be fully aware that the Session always begins on

My dear Sir,
I have told him that his successor will probably be Venetian from Birmingham, and I think that he will stand by his retirement, & really go.
I send you in separate copies of my letter to him & his reply.

put anything in the way of Mr. U's retirement. I would let him go at the time he wants to go. I understand that, under the Rules, a fourth officer of the Provincial Service may now be put in to act as the Collector.
District Judge class. If the Members concur with me, I will at once consult the High Court, and have no objection ready to release Mr. Underwood from his duties.

Very well. If a Prov. Service man can be found to take Mr. U's place, it is as Mr. E. says, he is great pity to stand in the way of his retirement.

Mr. Underwood's Retirement

FOR ORDERS.

With reference to the question of the appl. of a fourth Prov. or Statutory Officer as an Acting Dist Judge, it is submitted that after satisfying the claims of Indian Civilians who arrived in 1886, four appointments are available for the Statutory and Provincial Services. There are acting in the Collector. Judge grade of these classes of Officers:-
Mr. Manavedan Raja
Mr. Swaminatha Aiyar
Mr. R. Ry. Venkata Chari.

The Indian Civilians who arrived in 1886 are and with 85 Mr.
J. G. D. Partridge. For although he arrived actually in Jan'y 1887
he belongs to the batch from 80 Mr. Walker. (Underwood's)

i.e. 3770

the officer senior to Mr. Partide hold either special appli. or are acting as Collector or Judge.
 If it is considered impracticable to move Mr. Partide at the present juncture to Cuddalore his claim to promotion will apparently have been considered and the appl. of an officer of the Prov.
 Service as Asst. Judge of Cuddalore is admissible. The sanction of C.M.B. India will be necessary 26/7/97 if the acting date is likely to exceed three months.

Effect may be given from the 1st Aug. The new Judge will be desired to join at once.
 and there will be only a few days' interval.

But Aug 2 is the first day of the term - I don't see how Mr H. can possibly be allowed to go until his successor has joined. All the best of the term cases will be kept waiting.

* Orders are solicited. It will not be possible to reduce Mr Underwood to the 2nd August. Should he be sent there by telegram or by train.

I think he can be told that he can retire as soon as his successor arrives who will be in 2 or 3 days.
