NOTE FOR THE CHIEF SECRETARY.

Please see the
note flagged X in p. 916
Pub. of 9-2-97.

In his telephone
of the 10th July T the D. H. S. recommended that when Lt. Col. Pryce's services had been placed at the disposal of this Govt for employment as P. C. S. he could then be nominated for the Command of the M. V. G.

The Polit. Dept
now sends for personal
a d. o. from Mr.
Hosangue to the effect
that as far as can be seen at present Lt. Col.
Pryce will be available for employment as P. C. S. from the 1st December next and that when the time approaches, his services will, unless something unforeseen occurs be placed at the disposal of this Govt

all solicited whether India may be added now with ref to the command of the M.O.

India can be told that as this understood that Lt Col Pryce's services will be available in December for the Paymaster's Dept. therefore it takes the opportunity now to recommend that he may also be given the Comd of the Regt.

This will save time and the objection to Public taking action now disappears as Lt Col Pryce may be counted on "unless something unforeseen" happens.

The recommendation will be made in accordance with the ruling info.

* as this D.O. correspondence cannot be referred to

It is submitted that there is no objection to this course which will avoid the necessity of keeping this matter lying over for two or three months.

Draft submitted.
