FOR ORDER

It is very unfortunate that the confidential papers now put up should have been overlooked and picked up at first, but the completely changed the aspect of the case. In G.O. 13.9.95 in which medical officers were to be taken if wanted for India Service, but that order was virtually cancelled by G.O. 30.6.96 & 1025 P.M. 21.7.96 which laid down that the junior officers should be sent first. The S.G. has now nearly followed broad instructions, for he has sent (beginning from the bottom of the list) Prowse, Ellington, Krasner & Miller, skipping over, however, Abbott, who is junior to Miller. The stupidity of his action lies in his having sent off all the plague doctors, who doubt they were the junior but have a long Mr. Krasner, letter in G.O. 30.6.96 shows that we had the option to substitute the men - however the plague doctors should not have been taken without being replaced by equally efficient men. As it ~~was~~ ^{is} ~~was~~ they have been shifted off without our having any real warning because of the S.G.'s having kept back the (unpublished) telegram of July 2 (see Collected file).
 The best four officers warned by the S.G. are ~~the best four~~,
 Picken (Madras)
 Wright (Cannanore)
 Donovan (Mauritius)

No - The first current is from the S.G. of previous ^{MS} and Abbott (Cocanada).
 India's order (G.O. of June 30, '96) are that officers should be taken in order of juniority, exempting Professors of Medical Colleges and Chemical Exams, with liberty to send to obtain any officer whose transfer there are insuperable objections to such order, the officers who should go, beginning with the most junior are:

The question of placing was discussed in G.O.

no 780 Pelli of 13/9/95

and it was decided that

1. Jabbett (Coimbatore)
2. Elliot (Ag. Secretary)
3. Palk (District Surgeon)
4. Donovan (Mangalore)

we can't show 3. Palk and if 4. Donovan is to go we must send an officer of equal standing to replace him at Mangalore, where at any moment preventive arrangements may be found necessary. We must therefore take the two next senior, viz.

5. Wright (Coimbatore)
 6. Vickers (Kistna)
- But if 5. Wright goes, we must send a medical officer to Coimbatore for the jail charge. The next higher in the list (excepting ~~Wright~~ ^{Wright} is Thomson (Palk), jail men whom ~~Wright~~ ^{Wright} is Thomson (Palk), does not contemplate under the thought out of the district. The next highest officer of this district is Thomson (Palk), who is, I suppose, still away in Palk. Next, Wright for 300, the next Adams (Madras).
The 4. to be named to forward me therefore Jabbett, Elliot, Vickers and either Thomson or Adams.
Now though G.O. 780 Pelli of 13/9/95

The whole of the Confidential work has been recently rather upset. The regular Confidential clerk has for an appointment under the Resident in Mysore, his successor has not been here a week or so before he went down with measles and now there is another man who has not done Confidential work with confidence in charge.

of Coimbatore & Coimbatore were Jomithi, Anantapur & Coimbatore were wardens at the head of the list in the G.O. of 13/9/95, because the first has furnished in his hands the second (Elliot) stands named the third (Palk) stands named

If the 4 named for military duty have to go No 1 Jabbett may be replaced by an Asst. Surgeon; as to No 2, the 4. may make proposals, the app't being in replaced, as the man sent to plague duty at Mysore can run the district work also for a time; ~~and No 4~~ ^{the 4} the will be Thomson or Adams. If the former, the San'y Comr. must manage without him; if Adams, the Asst.

Surgeon must run the district.

If you think in the above I have rather ~~over~~ ^{over} happened in the P. S. function in the way of pathos, but ~~not~~ ^{not} I did not know I was not at all sure of this statement and there has been talk

It cannot be 2984 the their decision, and moreover says that the removal of Asst. Captain Harside inconvenience.

The point for observation is that officers should be named for service.

Asst. Capt. Jabbett & Asst.

Captain Vickers (Coimbatore already named. No more are required. Moreover, these officers are needed for plague inspection to be released for seem hardly likely that
