Proceedings of the Revenue Department.

-----:0:-----

Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Revenue Settlement, &c) dated 17th August 1897, No. 6430 Hs on the following objection statement from the Accountant General, No. P. A. D., dated 23rd July 1897 :-

Contingent bill for Rs. 15-9-0 is herewith returned for want of information as to the number and date of Government Order sanctioning the Khaki drill suit to the cycle peon. Vide article 93 (j) of the Civil Account Code.

Resolution.

The contingent bill for 15-9-0 being the cost of two suits supplied to the cycle peon has been objected to by the Accountant General for want of sanction of Government, with reference to article 93 (j) of the Civil Account Code. As the charge was incurred for furnishing the cycle peon with clothing similar to that worn by other cycle peons employed in Government Offices the Board begs that the sanction of Government may be accorded for the same. The clothing was not ordered through the Superintendent of Stationery as it was urgently required.
