G.O., No. 877, Public, dated 16th December 1892.

ABSTRACT.—Recording letter from the Government of India forwarding revised rules, under section 6 of 33 vict., cap. 3, for the appointment of Natives of India to offices reserved for members of the Indian Civil Service; communicating the same to the Accountant-General for the necessary action regarding the manner in which Statutory Civilians and officers of the Provincial Service should be shown in the Civil lists; and directing publication of certain notifications in the Port St. George Gazette.

READ—also the following paper:—

From J. P. HEWETT, Esq., C.I.E., Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Establishments), to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla, 16th September 1897, No. 681.

In continuation of the telegram from this office, No. 609, dated the 5th ultimo, sanctioning the transfer of Rai Bahadur Venkoba Chari to act as District and Sessions Judge of Cuddapah, I am directed to say that, when the Government of India have once sanctioned the appointment of an officer of the Statutory or the Provincial Service to act as a Magistrate and Collector, or as a District and Sessions Judge, without any local limitation, fresh sanction is not requisite under Home Department notification of the 2nd November 1892, No. 2159, to his transfer from one district to another so long as the officer has not reverted, since he continues to hold the same "listed" post of Magistrate and Collector or of District and Sessions Judge as the case may be. In the case of Rai Bahadur Venkoba Chari, the Government of Madras were right in asking for sanction to his transfer to act as District and Sessions Judge of Cuddapah, because sanction had originally been given to his appointment to act as a District and Sessions Judge of a particular district (Ganjām). As a rule, however, the Government of Madras may perhaps find it more convenient to obtain sanction in a manner which does not involve a second application when an officer is transferred, without reverting to a lower appointment, from one station to another in the same capacity.
