NOTE FOR THE Cash-keeper, only Office

The cheque for Rs 140 from the European and Anglo-Indian Association was cashed and the necessary information obtained from the Aust Bank Office on the 17th instant. The money ^{due} to India and to this Govt was remitted to the Bank of Madras with letter A as Chakras are not used in the A.S. Office.
The letter will show the different heads to which the amounts have been credited.
The two bank receipts are herewith sent but the one for Rs 3-7-0 due to this Govt need not be sent to the Aust Bank but be returned to me to be filed as the A.S. Office gets from the Bank our letter A to it for necessary adjustment.
The balance, viz. Rs 22-13-0 is in the cash-check awaiting order for return to the Association.

Similarly the amount to be paid in Bangalore for India should be credited to "Amount between India and Madras - items adjustable by India - Madras
- items," and that due to this Govt to "Recovery of Service payments" with a note on the margin ^{in the latter case only} "included in the telegraphic charges of Rs 600-13-0 shown
