16th August 1897.

OFFICE NOTE.

With reference to Endorsement No. 1619 dated 2nd August 1897, the Superintendent, Government Press, submits that overtime payment for the setting up and striking off of copies of the Gazette and its supplements would not be obviated by the issue of the Gazette twice in a week. It is in every way more convenient and economical to issue the Gazette once a week, and with the posting of the Gazette on Wednesday afternoons instead of Tuesday night the minimum overtime charges have been realized, as the binding overtime for the Gazette has been stopped.

2. Taking the 27 issues of the Gazette between January and July 1897 at two issues a week there were 7 occasions when Rs. 50 extra for postage would have been incurred. This for a year would mean Rs. 50 extra for postage per month, or Rs. 600 for the year. This clearly who is responsible for the addresses on the 1560 gazette wrappers used on each occasion, and sees to the despatch of the gazette to the Post office, is also in charge of the lists of officials and subscribers to the Law Reports numbering 5275 and prepares addresses for wrappers and sees to the despatch of the Law Reports; he also attends to the sale room. With two issues of the gazette in a week, it would not be possible for this clerk to attend to the Law Reports and sale room, and another clerk would be required.

3. The concentration of the bulk of the striking off of the gazette between 3 P.M. and 9 P.M. on Tuesdays, and between 6 A.M. and 1 P.M. on Wednesdays prevents overtime charges being specially incurred during the week. The District Gazette Supplements are being printed and issued, and when such heavy work as the monthly issue of the Law Reports are being printed off, to have the gazette working twice a week would also involve overtime for the long number of Clerks and Boards Proceedings to prevent inconvenience in the Secretariats.

4. On these grounds then, Superintendent does not advise a change in the issue of the gazette.

Overtime Allowances to the Government Press Employees

In the first of the currents quoted above the Public Dept. was requested "to institute enquiries as to whether pressure of work in the Govt. Press, and the consequent need for overtime payment might not be obviated, to some extent, by the issue of the Gazette twice a week, or by the issue of the various parts on different days".

2. The Supt., Govt. Press, who referred to, states (vide G.No.5080) that overtime payment for the setting up and striking off of copies will not be avoided by the ~~4~~ issue of the Gazette twice a week that it is in every way more convenient and economical to issue once a week; and that by posting the Gazette on Wednesday afternoons instead of Tuesday nights overtime charges have been reduced to a minimum. Mr. Hill calculates that the change would not only necessitate the extra expenditure of about Rs.600 a year for postage and the entertainment of an additional clerk to attend to the sale room and the despatch of the Law Reports, but also involve additional overtime charges in connection with the heavy work of printing the monthly issue of the Law Reports, the printing and issuing of the Mt. Gazette supplements, and of the large number of G.O.'s and Board's Proceedings, to prevent inconvenience in the Secretariats. Mr. Hall does not, therefore, advise a change in the issue of the Gazette.

5. Prior to Sept. 1858 the Gazette was issued twice a week. But in that year the Govt. ordered the issue of the Gazette only once a week as it was calculated that a saving of about Rs. 4,200 could thus be effected. The number of Gazettes issued then was only 561, whereas it is now 1,560. It is submitted therefore that it seems best not to disturb the present system.
