I respectfully beg to be informed whether in the Annual Return submitted by Native Civilian of land or shares in Registered Companies I should exhibit the following items:—
 (1) the monthly payment of 50 Rs by my wife for five shares in her name to the Egmore Benefit Fund at Madras through me as he agent for her maintenance for her maintenance out the monthly payment of 75 Rs by me to her for her her Mahar (dowry) made by her father to her to avoid future disputes in my Cousin.
 (2) the possession by her Triplicane of two old ancestral houses ~~which~~ about 1900 Rs built nearly a Century ago by her deceased maternal grandfather, a son of the late Wallajah and presented as a permanent ~~gift to her~~ ^{by her said father} after her marriage. They stand in her own name and are occupied by her and her children.

(3) A floating Current account kept by ~~me in my own name~~ at Madras with Messrs Abutunot and Co to whom I remit any savings I make out of my salary.

(4) my monthly payment of 3 Rs as a charity to the Triplacane Shah Wader Fund founded by the late Honorable Mir Humayoon Jah Bahadur C. I. E. and managed by Ally Dost for the support and maintenance of poor widows and orphans of the Shiah Sect to which they and I belong. Regarding (1), I beg to say that I have no right title of any kind to any of them.

I submit also that some years ago on my respectfully referring this very matter to you officially you were I recollect pleased to order that these shares need find no place in the said return. Having unfortunately lost all the papers on the subject, I crave your indulgence in intruding on your valuable time and attention with this reference.

I beg to remain your most obedient servant.
