Sir,

I have the honor to bring to the notice of Government the fact that owing to the rapid increase of distress in my Division I was unable to obtain leave of absence in order to appear at the high standard examination for Assistant Collectors in July, and to request that Government will consider my case, and if possible exempt me from the examination with effect from July 5th 1897, the date of the examination. The two subjects in which I have not yet passed are (1) Evidence and Medical Jurisprudence and (2) Survey.

I have, I believe, on more than one occasion, obtained more than the separate minimum for Evidence.

Assuming that I should have passed - and I had every hope of doing so - I am now suffering pecuniary loss for no fault of mine and I have the examination still to inconvenience me.

Half-yearly Examination of Assistants

FOR ORDERS.

The President, Board of Examiners, submits the results of the recent examination of Assistants ^{to the} Higher and Lower Standards. Mr. MacIver passed the Higher Standard and may, it is submitted, be granted the pay of a passed Asst.
with effect from the 5th July 1897. Messrs Coleridge, Heaney and Bryant have passed the Lower Standard.

2. Under rule 29 of the Indian Civil Service Manual an Assistant who fails to pass the Higher Standard within four years actual service shall be suspended. It will be seen that Mr. Ghose has exceeded the four years limit and that he did not appear for the recent examination.
He was warned of the consequences in G.O.
No. 876 Pub., d/ 14th August 1896. His absence is apparently due to the fact in Kurnool requiring his presence there and it would, it is thought, be hard to enforce the rule in his case. Messrs.

I still think the extension should be granted to all. Even those who have not had to administer relief have had the imminent possibility of famine before them & have had to be ever-lively on the watch & devote an unusual amount of time to inspection.
As for whether back pay should be given in any case where they do pass, the decision may be deferred. The cases are very different.

On re-consideration, I think the Hon. Mr. Grant's recommended proposal is the best. just cannot agree. HH 4-9-57 be done e.g. if the Green Council do not pass at the next session they may be given a pass?
