 before you, his principal, faithful, and exceptionally brave man, & begs for consideration.
 Your servant served the Madras Government for 10 years in the Medical Dept.
 - until his unfortunate accident, account of which is attached, he was deprived, practically of the use of his legs, and also of that pension. At that time, there was an order that 10 years' service was necessary for a pension.
 Your servant was consequently deprived of a pension, and even a gratuity was not given him. Shortly afterwards an order was passed that 10 years' service, with a little more Government - should entitle a pension. Your servant made a request to be allowed to get the benefit of that order, but he was informed that a concession
