local foots will be settled between these foots. But in the present case the transfer is merely from one corps in Burma to another Corps, and there seems to be no necessity for this foot to do anything. It is admitted therefore that the foot of Burma may be told that this foot has no objection to Lt. Marshall's transfer from the M. B. Vol Rifles to the Moulmein Rifles, but that, as he is now under (as a volunteer) the Burma foot, there is no necessity for a formal transfer by this foot such as is asked for.
