My dear Sir,

As His Excellency has decided to promote Macleod in Austin's vacancy, I send you draft minute of appointment for all the Civil List vacancies drawn up in accordance with what I understand is to be the arrangement. Parsons is put in the last arrangement to get him the ^{Salary} pay of his contemporaries. As the arrangements are complicated I will, if there is no objection, send Harrison a copy (confidentially) and ask him to check, before circulation.

Yours sincerely,

My dear Forbes,

Assuming that Harrison finds these appointments all correct, His Excellency thinks that they might be approved, & a draft minute of appointment prepared accordingly.

My dear Harrison

The accompanying draft minute of appointments provides for all existing vacancies in the ICS before I am back you, as the matter is somewhat complicated, to be so good as to have the list checked and returned to me at an early date. The vacancy in the Principal Assistant-ship of Fanyam, although dating from the 18th March 1896, is filled up from the first November on order to avoid the necessity for receiving a long string of post appointments with little benefit and although Parsons is brought into the last arrangement as permanent Head Asst as from the Civil list he appears to be losing pay since the 13th August when compared with his former position.

Will you please let me have back the soon as convenient as the matter has been delayed for some days already.
