look up the last occasion when Xmas day fell on Saturday &
see how the Xmas
holidays were arranged.

I will then enquire about whether leave can be given to Mr. O'Farrell

The last vacation on which Christmas day fell on a Saturday was in 1886.

The holidays began on Thursday the 23rd December & ended on Wednesday the 5th January '87 - both days inclusive.

Supt. to the Ch. The disadvantage of commencing the holidays in the middle of the week is that the two end Sundays are lost. They might start the year from Monday the 20th Dec. & Office reopening on the 3rd January. Last year they ran from the 21st Dec. to the 2nd January inclusive.

Think this is the best plan - as more days more intact to let go days work

It seems to me that Dec 20th is too early for the holidays to begin & that they should run from Thursday 23rd to Wednesday the
