NOTE FOR THE CHIEF SECRETARY.

I do not know if there is any official list kept of vernacular papers, but would be suggest that the only way of making the notice reach the class of people for whom it is meant is to publish it in the vernacular press. Such a list of the vernacular papers. Extracts are made from them every week.
Enquire & put up. MB

NOTE FOR THE CHIEF SECRETARY.

Let it be the intention that all papers are put up at it in good time. Perhaps it very long be. It might be well to select one for each district, after ascertaining, from the Dist. Magistrate if necessary, which is the most widely circulated, and in such cases communicate news to be circulated in them.
