It is a question whether the order as regards

be issued by any one but the Chief Dated 28-1-97

will direct the attendance of all Civil Enclosures more I am inclined to think from the fact that that Dept. was then under the Chief Secretary. I don't see two others who have the direction of this particular matter but I think that the question should be definitely settled and that it is one which cannot be disposed of by Secretaries

OFFICE NOTE.

CHIEF SECRETARY
28 JAN. 1897
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

From
The Secretary to Govt.
Marine Department

To
The Chief Secretary
to Government.

The undersigned has the honour to request that he may be informed for future guidance, whether on the occasion of the arrival or departure of the naval Commander in Chief he, as Secretary in the Marine Department, is expected to take the steps prescribed for the Chief Secretary on pp. 171-72 of the Hand Book of Procedure and Precedents.

2. This inquiry is made as it is noticed that the

on a former occasion were made, and the papers recorded, in the marine department.

SUBJECT.

Arrangements in re arrival and departure of the Naval Commander in Chief

FOR ORDERS.

I don't myself see why the Sec. in the Marine Dept should not discharge the functions in question. As a rule for the attendance of all civil officers, I am relying on the Secretary's hands.

Signature

I am not sure that the attendance of civil officers is not some what in the hands of the Sec. of the U.S. Government but I am not sure.

* In 1891 vide p. 172 of the Handbook
In 1893 [Visit of Rear Admiral W.R. Hammett] S.O. N° 52 March 6. 2. 93
There is now no Secy to look into.

I think it would be better to refer the Chief Sec. should report to the Secretary

The Secy to the Marine Dept asks to be informed whether, on the occasion of the arrival or departure of the Naval Commander in Chief, he as Secy in the Marine Dept, is expected to take the steps prescribed for the same on pp 171-72 of the Handbook of Procedure and Precedent.

His reason for enquiring is that on former occasions these arrangements were made, and the papers recorded, in the Marine Dept.

It will be observed however, that that Dept was then under the Secy and it is questionable whether orders as regards public functions and reception of officials should be issued by any one but the C.S. or the mil Secy

to H. L. the Governor.

The Secy of the Marine Dept can not, it is submitted, direct the attendance of all civil officers.

Orders in the matter are solicited.

It is a matter of perfect indifference personally to me who issues the order. I consider that all orders with regard to the attendance of any kind of persons there should be issued by the military Secretary & the Governor. I should be issued by the Chief Secretary to Government alone. They must come under "Public" or "Official"
