PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From the Reverend J. SHARP, Chaplain, Honorary President, Bangalore Pensioners' Widows' and Orphans' Fund, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 27th January 1897.

I have the honour to forward the report of the Bangalore Pensioners' Widows' and Orphans' Fund for 1896 for the information of His Excellency the Governor in Council.

2. The fund opened with a capital of Rs. 12,496-0-4 and the closing balance on the 31st December 1896 is Rs. 12,168-6-11—viz., amount of loans outstanding Rs. 9,992-7-2, cash in hand Rs. 2,175-15-9; there is thus a loss on capital of Rs. 327-9-5.

3. During the year one widow died. There are now on the list fifteen widows incumbent on the fund.

4. The number of subscribers to the fund is one.

5. In regard to the item Rs. 441-12-0 mentioned in last year's report as "recoverable law charges," the case is still pending in court, and although decree has been given in favour of the fund, the sale of the property is not yet complete. Had it not been for this, the accounts would have shown a surplus instead of a loss on capital.

6. Abstract of the capital statement of income and expenditure and cash account are appended.

7. I have the honour to request that His Excellency the Governor in Council will be pleased to sanction the usual grant of Rs. 300.

ORDER—No. 189, Public, dated 26th February 1897.

In his letter read above, the President of the Bangalore Pensioners' Widows' and Orphans' Fund submits his report for the year 1896. The outstanding loans at the beginning and end of the year amounted to Rs. 9,538-9-2 and Rs. 9,992-7-2, respectively, while the cash in hand was Rs. 2,957-7-2 and Rs. 2,175-15-9, respectively.

2. The interest realized on loans fell from Rs. 705-4-3 in the preceding year to Rs. 609-14-10, as also did the subscriptions from Rs. 757 to Rs. 240, of which latter sum the general public contributed Rs. 232 and one subscriber the balance of Rs. 8. There was an excess expenditure over income of Rs. 327-9-5, * but it is reported that a decree has been given in favour of the Fund with reference to the item, Rs. 441-12-0, entered in the previous year's report as "recoverable law charges", and that when the sale of the property is complete, there will be a surplus, instead of a loss, on the capital account. It is observed that although in the review of the report of 1895 it was remarked that some details of this item might well have been given none has been furnished.

3. The number of widows on the Fund at the close of the year was fifteen as against sixteen in 1895.
