JANUARY.

Volunteers' ~~Captain~~ Promotion.

Recording, for guidance, letter from the Government of India stating that the promotion to the rank of Honorary Major of Captain H. D. B. Macartagart, of the South Indian Railway Volunteer Rifle Corps, will, in due course, be notified in the Gazette of India, and observing that to render a Captain, while serving, eligible for the grant of a step of honorary rank, his service must be commissioned but need not be continuous.

4TH JANUARY 1897.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From Major P. A. BUCKLAND, Assistant Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Fort William, the 10th December 1896, No. 2847-B.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 1248, dated the 30th November 1896, regarding the promotion to the rank of Honorary Major of Captain H. D. B. Mactaggart, of the South Indian Railway Volunteer Rifle Corps.

A statement of Captain Mactaggart's service has been forwarded with the remark that this officer's services have neither been continuous nor wholly passed in the commissioned ranks, and that it is understood the provisions of paragraph 106, Army Regulations, India, Volume IX, Provisional Issue, do not insist on either of these conditions.

2. In reply, I am directed to state, for the information of His Excellency the Governor in Council, that it is not necessary that the service required under the regulations quoted to render a Captain of Volunteers, while serving, eligible for the grant of a step of honorary rank, should be continuous, but it must be commissioned service. As, however, Captain Mactaggart has apparently already completed the required period of fifteen years' commissioned service laid down, I am to state that his promotion to the honorary rank of Major will, in due course, be notified in the Gazette of India.
