The accompanying telegram was received by me after the Office hours last night. I took it to the residence of the Asst. Chief Secretary.

I am arranging to telegraph early tomorrow to India Office when Sir D. Fitzpatrick will reach London, the route by which he will travel and the date of starting for Bombay.

Orders are requested as to whether he is to be received publicly and defrayed at the public cost.

This will be given to the Collr. of the District concerned, & the Revenue and Pol. Depts.

I presume that there is no need to publish a Gazette Extraordinary and that the Representative may be published (if thought necessary) in the ordinary course.
