The Honourable J. F. Price C. S.

Chief Secretary to the Government

Fort Saint George
Madras.

May it please your Honour,

I, ex-pensioned Private Lakshumudu, a poor pensioned sepoy of the late Madras 22nd Regiment, most humbly beg to submit to your honour my petition addressed to the Right Honourable the Viceroy and Governor General of India, with the humble solicitation that your honour be pleased to lay the same before His Excellency the Right Hon^{ble} the Governor of Madras, with a recommendation that it may be forwarded, with the merciful support of your government.

My pension was stopped from payment on the ground that I was punished for theft. I did not in fact commit the theft. By the intrigues of my seeming friends, the case was set up against me. Innocent as I am, I thought the Magistrate would let me off, and was simply guided by those false friends before the magistrate.

I thought the Magistrate would enquire into into the truth of the case as in the trial of Military officers in our Regiment.

I had no lawyer nor was I able to engage one to advise and defend me. I therefore submitted a petition to His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor General for mercy and pardon, without knowing the rules of Government that petitions should be sent through the Government of Madras.

In conclusion I most humbly beg your honour to recommend me to my hard earned little pension the only means of livelihood of myself, my wife and children in my old years.

For which act of great mercy I shall as in duty bound ever pray.
