Surgeon Captain Bannerman is shown as having acquired a building site of 13 acres at Kodaikanal.

There is nothing calling for remarks in the other returns.
The holding of the lands mentioned therein has already been declared to be unobjectionable. Should anything be said to Dr. Bannerman? or does the C.S. consider that 13 acres is not more than sufficient at Kodai for a house for residence & the usual appurtenances?

For C.S. orders

J.D.B.

I don't think there is any objection to 13 acres; it is not much. I have less 18 acres.
