SUBJECT

Requesting Government to sanction supply of warm clothing to the servants of the Gudalur Munsif's Court.

Order R

The Honble the Judges of the High Court will be requested to be so good as to furnish the details and cost of livery in each case.

Sub? that to give the men a chance of getting this year's clothing when they most require it Rs. 12 per head per annum may be sanctioned as in the case of the Ooty out Court. This reference will probably not be answered much.

Note - Please see fo. 341 R Pubd/18.3.97 flagged B before the rains set in at Gudalur. The precedent quoted is not on all fours with this.

Most respected Sir,

We most humbly and respectfully beg to bring to your Honor's kind and favorable orders a genuine grievance on the part of the process servers including an Amine and a Head Peon of the Court.

In all the other Departments in the Division it is customary for the Peons to receive what is called warm clothing in addition to their pay, in consideration of the heavy rain and the unhealthiness of the Cuddalore climate.

Not only is this warm clothing is granted to us although Cuddalore brings more rain than in plains but our work is also of a very different nature from that of the other office peons.

At times we are obliged to go on process duty at the noon and evening of the whole division in spite of heavy rain in search of Defendants, witnesses &c. when the orders we take with us often get wet.

Ludhiana

Sir,

In forwarding herewith a petition from the people of my Court, I have the honour to support their request.

2. The cold weather in the Rhyanaad, though not of course nearly as cold as on the higher plateau, is still very much colder than on the plains, and in the monsoon the weather is very raw and damp owing to the excessive rainfall. It is all the more important to keep oneself warm in the Rhyanaad, as the place is feverish, and the results of a chill are much more disastrous than they would be elsewhere.

3. As a precedent for the grant of warm clothing, I would instance the case of Teypore Hills in the Vizagapatnam district, where the climatic conditions are very similar to those in

is very reasonable.

Ref on case no 464.

High Court of Judicature,
Madras, 11th March 1897.

From:
D. W. G. Cowie Esquire,
Registrar, High Court of Judicature, Madras.

To
The Honorable Mr. J F Price, C. S. I.,
Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.

Honorable Sir,

An amin, the head peon and two process servers of the Gudalur District Munsif's Court have petitioned the District Munsif requesting him to obtain sanction for the supply of warm clothing to them. The District Munsif strongly supports the application, and the District Judge has forwarded it for favorable consideration. This same concession has been allowed in the case of the peons of the Subordinate Judge's Court Ootacamund, and I am to say that the High Court considers that it may be extended to the applicants.

In these circumstances I am directed to request that His Excellency the Governor in Council will be pleased to sanction the supply of warm clothing to the aforesaid servants of the Gudalur Munsif's Court.

Their application and letters of the District Mun-sif and the District Judge are forwarded herewith.

I have the honor to be,
Honorable Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

D. W. G. Cowie
Registrar.
