the honor to state that the privilege leave for 2 months and 19 days of which you availed yourself from 2nd October 1896 expired on the 20th December 1896. As you joined your appointment on the

Sir,

I have the honor to forward a copy of letter from the Accountant General No. 2812 (Gazetted and audit department) dated 26th instant and to request orders thereon.

The Accountant General does not seem to be aware that under G.O. Public Department

Cuddapah COLLECTOR'S OFFICE,

Camp Balapaur

A. C. Sate Esq.

COLLECTOR OF Cuddapah

R.N. 979 dated 18th September 1896 the Government permitted me to affix the Christmas holidays to my leave. Consequently it is only for the 4th and 5th of January 1897, that orders seem to be required, and as I did not overstay my leave, by more than a week, I continue to hold under Section 261(a)(ii) of the Civil Service Regulations a lien on my appointment.

3. Under the circumstances stated in para 2 of my letter dated 10th September 1896, N. 1920, I request that in consideration of the very little leave I have enjoyed, Government will permit me to count the 4th and 5th of January 1897 as casual leave in continuation of the Christmas holidays.

It is perhaps necessary for me to explain that I did not intentionally overstay my authorised period of absence. I took a return ticket to and Brindisi and sailed from Bombay the mail route via Bombay, in 'Shannon' on Saturday 3rd October 1896. I reached London at 9 a.m. on Sunday 18th December although passengers were detained about 6 hours at Brindisi for medical examination. The same steamer 'Shannon' was the one by which I returned to Bombay. (I came in S.S. Clyde from Brindisi to Port Said where the mails and myself were transhipped) and her captain assured me that I might safely calculate on reaching Bombay on afternoon of Saturday 2nd January, an assurance which was justified by the time taken in going home. Unfortunately she was stopped by a fog in the channel and lay ~~at~~ an account of a gale in the Bay.

and consequently although advertised to leave Marseilles on 18th December, she did not leave that port until 19th December. I had to wait 19 hours for her at Port Said in the S.S. Clyde, and to put a climax on my misfortunes, she went aground in the canal off ^{Ismaïlia} ~~Ismaïlia~~ and was there detained for 10 hours more. In consequence of all this, I landed in Bombay on the morning of 4th January, when I ought to have rejoined my duty in Cuddapah. I left Bombay by the next train and rejoined on forenoon of 6th.

I have the honour to be Submitted to Government.

Mr. A. C. Tate was granted privilege leave for 2 months and 19 days with effect from 2nd October 1896 which expired on the 20th December 1896. If ~~he~~ had returned to duty on the 4th January 1897 the first working day after the Christmas Holidays he would have been entitled to the holidays under Article 254 of the Civil Service Regulations provided no extra charge was incurred owing to his absence during the holidays. As he returned to duty on the 6th January 1897 he cannot get the benefit of the above article. He has therefore overstayed his privilege leave from 21st December 1896 and should be reappointed as Collector of Cuddapah by Government from 6th January 1897.

Mr. Tate cannot be granted extraordinary leave for 4th & 5th Jan'y/97, only under Article 366 provides! C. S. R. Govt. appears to be under the impression that by granting him extraordinary leave for the above period, he would be entitled to the benefit of Xmas holidays and also to full pay for the holidays. The permission to add holidays to Privilege leave is contingent on Mr. Tate's return to duty on the first working day after the holidays. If he had returned to duty on that date he would have been held to have assumed charge of his office on the day after that on which his privilege leave expired. The period of holidays would have been treated as duty. As he did not return to duty
