His Excellency The Right Honorable
The Governor of Madras.

Your Excellency, I beg most respectfully to submit the following appeal with the fervent hope that it would touch your Excellency's heart and awaken your Excellency's sympathy towards relieving the manifold sufferings of a poor widow. My husband served in the Police Department for over 20 years and since his death which occurred 14 years ago leaving me a widow with two daughters to be cared for, I and my children have endured great hardships and privations of every kind, sometimes starving for days together and sometimes satisfying our hunger with what little the charity of kind friends and strangers procured.

Owing to the Zenana system of the Community to which I belong and the present famine my misery has reached a crisis which leaves me very little hope. I therefore beg your Excellency would take compassion on my wretched situation and issue an order to the Commissioner of Police to supply me me and my two daughters with rice at the Government Alms House, Chepank. Your Excellency's generosity will ever be remembered with prayers and gratitude as that which has rescued us from the cruel death by starvation which must otherwise be the inevitable doom of us all.

I beg to remain,
Your Excellency's most obedient and humble servant,
