READ—the following paper:—

Despatch from the Right Hon'ble Lord GEORGE HAMILTON, Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India in Council, dated India Office, London, 19th November 1896, No. 111—Political.

I have received and considered in Council your Excellency's letter, in the Home Department, No. 69, of the 30th September 1896.

2. Your Excellency suggests that orders should be communicated to you specifically dealing with the offer of presents for Her Majesty the Queen-Empress by Native subjects of Her Majesty who are not Princes or Chiefs. I consider that all offers of such presents should be submitted to the Government of India, and that, as a general rule, they should be discouraged as contrary to established usage, unless in any case in which your Excellency in Council may see fit to recommend, for reasons to be stated, as an exception to this general rule.
