Simla, the 30 April 1897.

SIR,

INSTANCES having occurred in which letters from certain Local Governments forwarding communications from public associations in British India in connection with the celebration of the 60th completed year of Her Majesty's reign have been addressed to the Foreign Department, I am directed to invite attention to the Notification of this Department, No. 1377, dated the 23rd June 1887, and to request that all communications from public bodies, associations and residents in British India in connection with the celebration of the Jubilee may be addressed to the Government of India in the Home Department.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

L. M. Thornton

Depy. Secretary to the Government of India.
